League Recap

Tuesday Treasure League saw Uschi bowl a PB and her first 200 game, and with handicap Lisa T pipped her for the Skin! Well done. Uschi and Lisa! This Tuesday saw the gap at the top of the ladder close with the top 3 bowlers getting smashed on the lanes. This has made it really close with the top 5 within a few points!

All Sorts League last week saw Kathryn White bowl a 202 and 51 pins over her average, Mrs White is consistently on our lanes working on her game—practice pays off and well done to you Kat! Joey also bowled up a storm with a 279, nice work Joey. This week saw Angelo bowling up a storm (yep same sentence repeated because it is after all twin 2! Nothing like keeping it between you both! Nice series Angelo with a 658. Also a shout out to Maxine who bowled a 200 and Sue who takes out Bowler of the Week this week! Well done to the women in sports—hope you celebrated International Women's Day in style! Go women!

Let's not talk about the wooden spoon for the week because Mark has a new ball now :)

Moving right into Thursday night leagues—Fishing & Outdoor World Hot Shots last week saw Adem with a 257 game and Nick Skonis with a 834 series picking up the wins against Ron. Bec bowled below average but still picked up the wins as she is known for—awesome work Bec! Shame it didn't quite pan out that way for this week—Seeing Bec bowling great with a nice 256 and losing 10 out the 12 points to Ron. Great game to watch - note to all those spectators we will be charging for seats to these type of matches in the future :P

This week Bruno bowled a 288— nice work, Jaime says it was a soft 7 in the 11th but hey—let me know what you think if you saw it because Bruno is like a lot of bowlers and thinks it was a good shot!

Hot Shots is the league for the hot shots on our lanes and continues to live up to its name!

Cash Doubles last week saw Saul bowl a 242 with a 653 series—wow, that's huge! Well done. Also a shout out to Chris with a 258, Eryn on a 228 and Ronin with a 237 nice work you mob!

This week on the lanes Kat Arnold bowled a PB with a 210—awesome work Kat. Clayton picked star bowler this week and Ronin continues his good form with a 662 tonight.

The Delta Electric's Juniors saw great bowling with their new balls. Ami bowled a 148 and Landon bowled a 23 pins over average game. Good work juniors you're doing well!

Announcements

Planet Tenpin's response to COVID-19 (Coronavirus)

- We will have extra hand washing products available soon and encourage to wash your hands often!
- We are undertaking regular sanitising of surfaces and extra disinfectant in the toilets for preventative measures.
- If you are not well or if you would prefer to use the strategy of social distancing during this time please let us know and we can ensure you have oiled lanes for pre/post bowling.
- We encourage you all to consider changing some of the contact behaviour such as shaking hands and high fives and call on you all to understand if others are choosing not to engage in this contact :)

Congratulations to those who made the Holt Team for 2020!
